

Thank you for using the Air Force Technology Transfer Handbook (AF T² Handbook). There are two versions, one printed and one electronic. The latter is available on the web site located at http://www.afrl.af.mil/techtran/handbk/index_nofrm.htm. Your experience using this tool is very important to us as we strive to continuously improve an already excellent product. The web-based version of the handbook will be updated as policies and procedures change.

1. Have you used previous versions of the AF T² Handbook? Yes ___ No ___

2. If yes, what specific improvements have been made?

3. If this is your first opportunity to use the AF T² Handbook, on a scale of 1-10, 10 being best, how easily were you able to find the information you were looking for? _____

4. Were you looking for specific information or were you browsing when you used the AF T² Handbook? Please describe.

5. Will the AF T² Handbook be used as a training tool or reference? Yes ___ No ___
If yes, how will it help you do your job better?

6. Does the AF T² Handbook supplement any formal training you have received? Yes ___
No ___
Describe formal T² training.

7. On a scale of 1-10, 10 being best, what score do you give the AF T² Handbook for continuity, information flow, user-friendliness? ____

8. What was not included in the AF T² Handbook that you would like to see?

9. This space provided should you have additional comments.